

DM-521

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Monday, 5 November 1956

25X1 PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Mr. Amory, Col. White,
Messrs. Helms, Kirkpatrick, [redacted] Sheldon,
25X1 Gen. Truscott, [redacted]

Mr. Dulles:

25X1

[redacted]

25X1

[redacted]

Mr. Kirkpatrick:

25X1 a) Briefly discussed his conversation with [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] over the weekend and noted that [redacted] was 25X1 ready, willing and able to do anything he could for us
25X1 during the current crisis in Hungary. The Director commented
25X1 he had a high regard [redacted] and believed he could be put to good use. Mr. Helms noted some reservations about this individual. The Director asked Messrs. Helms and Kirkpatrick to discuss this matter and furnish him their recommendations.

25X1

25X1

